Don Friesen

...is a relatively "clean" performer who uses self-deprecating humor to lampoon his life as a suburban husband and father. His act consist so satirical scenes what spoof his daily interactions with his wife, kids, tech support, creditors, and airline pilots, mixed in with impressions, improvisation and audience interaction.

He won the prestigious San Francisco International Comedy Competition, and is the only person to win it twice.

He performed on the Martin Short Show, has appeared on Byron Allen's Comics Unleashed, and was taped for the syndicated program's compilation "Best of Comics Unleashed" DVD.

He has performed on Comedy Central's "Live at Gotham," and currently tours the country performing live in a variety of venues ranging from comedy clubs, theaters, and casinos, to corporate events, colleges and cruise ships.

He can be heard regularly in Los Angeles on the 95.5 KLOS Five O-Clock Funnies, and nationally on XM and Sirius Satellite Radio.
